

AIRC ADVOCACY

Training Program

*Presented by the Workplace Advocacy & Conflict Resolution Forum.
A Committee of the Industrial Relations Society of Victoria Inc*

The program is a skill-based program directed at advocacy skills for appearances in the AIRC. With the impending introduction of the Fair Work legislative reforms and the role of Fair Work Australia contemplated by these reforms, the program is a great opportunity for new advocates, and will also be of interest to those more experienced advocates wishing to review their practical skills and knowledge of advocacy in a tribunal context.

The program is conducted by Senior Deputy President Brian Lacy of the AIRC and Chris O'Grady, a member of the Industrial Bar, together with a range of experienced advocates and current members of the AIRC who will work with participants in the workshop sessions.

Seminars and workshops will be conducted on the following dates:

Preliminary Lectures: Thursday 23 April and 30 April 2009 (6.00pm - 9.00pm)
Jasper Hotel, 489 Elizabeth Street, Melbourne

Two Full Day Skill Workshops: Saturday 2 May and 9 May 2009 (9.15am - 5.00pm)
Jasper Hotel, 489 Elizabeth Street, Melbourne

Summing Up Session: Wednesday 13 May 2009 (6.00pm - 8.00pm)
Australian Industrial Relations Commission
11 Exhibition Street, Melbourne

COST: $850 per participant (including GST)
