Professor Roy Green

The European Social model v the US Deregulation model

Wednesday 15th May 2002

On May 15, the IRSV welcomes Professor Roy Green, currently Professor of Management & Director of the Centre for Innovation and Structural Change, National University of Ireland, and remembered in Australia as the architect of the Australian Workplace Industrial Relations Study (AWIRS).
Professor Green has been an adviser to both Government and Opposition parties in the UK and Australia during the past 20 years, in addition to establishing the Employment Studies Centre at the University of Newcastle, NSW and now the Centre for Innovation and Structural Change at the National University of Ireland.
Always an interesting speaker, this is your chance to hear Professor Green discuss the two models most directly relevant to the changing Australian IR scene.

Tea and coffee will be provided on arrival.
