ACCI Workplace Relations Blueprint
Modern Workplace: Modern Future 2002-2010

Peter Anderson, Director, Workplace Policy
Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry
6.00pm, Tuesday 25th March 2003

Come to the March IRSV Snapshots Session and hear from Peter Anderson from the Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (ACCI). Peter will be speaking on the recently released paper "ACCI Workplace Relations Blueprint, Modern Workplace: Modern Future 2002-2010".

ACCI is the the peak council of Australian business associations. Their member network has over 350,000 businesses represented through Chambers of Commerce in each state and territory and a nationwide network of business associations. The role of ACCI is to represent the interests of business at a national level as well as internationally. It represents the views of business to government in national employment and industrial matters, including workplace reform, workplace relations policy and national test cases on wages and conditions of employment.

Peter joined ACCI at the beginning of 2002. Prior to this Peter was Senior Adviser to two Federal Ministers for Employment and Workplace Relations between 1997 and 2001, Peter Reith and Tony Abbott. He also developed the Australian government's trade practices reforms in 1998 whilst Peter Reith was Small Business Minister. Peter has a long association with industry and employer organisations.

Peter Anderson holds a Bachelor of Laws (Hons) and a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice from the University of Adelaide. He is also a contributing author to a major teaching publication on Business Law.

Tea and coffee will be provided on arrival, with refreshments afterwards.
